

Grenoble in 250 keywords:

"Ranked in the Top 5 most innovative cities in the world, Grenoble is constantly reinventing the future. Here, laboratories, universities and companies work together to make the world of tomorrow.

Rich of the France's first ecological district and of many exciting urban initiatives, Grenoble benefits from the label French Tech, which distinguishes its digital identity and technological dynamics. Grenoble invests its gray matter in key sectors such as micro & nanotechnologies, computing & software, health & medical technology, energy, chemistry & environment, metallurgy & mechanics. With more than 200 laboratories, 25 000 public and private researchers, the city relies on 8 national research organizations and 5 major European instruments. 5 clusters label each year many projects with strong technological and economical stakes. An attractiveness that translates into a cosmopolitan identity with students from all around the world and nearly 500 foreign companies.

In its sumptuous mountains setting, Grenoble offers also a new way of life. With more than 450 fine; traditional or reception restaurants, the city is buzzing with good addresses, some recommended by the most famous guides. As far as fine food goes, a stay in Grenoble offers the opportunity to discover the creativity of local chefs spoiled by the quality and choice of local ingredients. Cultural capital rich of more than 30 museums and many festivals, Grenoble is also rising among the sporting cities with an incredible diversity of outdoors activities. "